The Winslow Boy by Terence Rattigan

F. Scott Fitzgerald Theatre
Rockville Civic Center Park
240-314-8690

A powerful and moving story of a pre-World War I British family fighting against odds for honor, truth and justice.

Based on a true story, the play takes place in the Winslow's London home over two years preceding World War One. The play opens with the unexpected arrival home of Ronnie, 14, who reveals that he was expelled from naval school, accused of stealing a five-shilling postal order. Mr. Winslow believes his son and fights the expulsion.

Produced by Jane Green and directed by Michael Kharfen, the show features Albert Coia, Chris Curtis, Joshua Greenwald, Leta Hall, Patricia Kratzer, Patrick Landis, Sonia Motlagh, Tim Phelps, Andrea Spitz and Bill Taylor.
